Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Fred Hubbard has devoted his life to the betterment of his community and church, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving that make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Fred has been an integral part of the Jenkins Living Center, Inc. in Watertown, South Dakota, since the planning stages of this skilled nursing facility in the mid-1950s; and,

Whereas, Fred has been a founder and administrator of Jenkins Living Center, as well as a member of the Jenkins Living Center Foundation Board of Directors, and a major contributor to the financial needs of Jenkins Living Center throughout the years; and,

Whereas, On Wednesday, May 14, 2003, the Jenkins Living Center is hosting a "Fred Hubbard Appreciation Day" to recognize Fred's contribution to the lives of so many people in the community of Watertown as well as throughout the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make a special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M, Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 14, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join his family and many friends from the Jenkins Living Center and city of Watertown in thanking him for his generosity, dedication, and leadership over the years.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
